

Flourishing at Laney Resource Guide

Designed to support students through their graduate journey Flourishing at Laney integrates three core pillars: Purpose and Wellbeing, Pathways to Success, and Community and Belonging.

	Purpose & Wellbeing
Center for Student Wellbeing	Provides opportunities for students to explore elements of well-being, and engage in health topics such as time management, substance abuse, and health relationships. Students can also access individual and group consultations, wellbeing coaching and many other resources . 404-727-1000
Counseling & Psychological Services	Provides free, confidential, and flexible support available 24/7/365 . Services include clinical services for individuals, groups, and couples, TimelyCare for 24/7 telehealth mental health support for Emory students. There are multiple ways to schedule an appointment and drop-in urgent appointments are available Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m. - 5 pm. 404-727-7450
Department of Accessibility	Provides support to students who register for accessibility accommodations related to a health condition. Their website includes information on: student academic and employment accommodations, training and support resources for students, staff, and faculty, documentation guidelines and forms to support accommodation requests. 404-727-9877
Food Support Services	Food Pantries: The Emory Community Fridge and Pantry is located on the first floor of the Alumni Memorial University Center, and the Eagle Food Co-op offers a free food pantry on Fridays, 9 a.m.- 5 p.m. The Food Security Safeguard Program (FSSP) is designed to assist any student with immediate food security needs on the Atlanta campus. Complete an FSSP request form to receive three meal swipes at Dobbs Common Table. Farmer’s Market takes place Tuesdays, at 11 a.m. - 2 p.m. on McDonough Plaza. 404-727-4051
Institutional Equity & Compliance	Emory University is committed to creating a safe learning and working environment free of discrimination, harassment, and violence, supporting the academic and professional growth of students, staff, and faculty. Support is provided by: Department of Equity and Civil Rights Compliance, Title IX Office, University Equity and Compliance Trainings. 404-727-0541
International Student & Scholar Services	Serving Emory University’s international students and scholars (ISSS) who are under Emory's immigration sponsorship. ISSS supports these individuals with resources and services including: immigration advisement and intercultural competency and leadership training, programming. 404-727-3300
Office of Respect	Provides help, advocacy, and support to students affected by sexual harassment, sexual assault, or partner violence through: confidential support, training programs and preventative education, and culture of respect. 24 Hour Hotline: 470-270-5360
Ombuds Office	Offers confidential assistance navigating interpersonal conflicts, ethical issues, and grievances, as well as guidance on University policies and procedures such as: conflict management services, informal conflict resolution options, and online conflict resources. 404-727-1531
Parental Resources	The Laney Graduate School supports student parents by fostering services and resources such as: having an arrangement policy for students with parental responsibilities due to childbirth, caring for a newborn, or adopting a child, partnering with Human Resources to provide access to a Childcare network, and supporting the Back-Up Care Advantage program.
Student Case Management & Intervention Services	Provides community support to aid students in navigating barriers by: maintaining a community student of concern form , providing case management services, and offering resources such as the Student Intervention Service (SIS). For immediate assistance with a student in distress, call the SIS Crisis 24/7 On-Call Team 404-430-1120. 404-727-5693
Student Health Services	Provides outpatient care for enrolled Emory students with a valid Emory ID card. Care services include: an Emory University Student Health Insurance Plan (EUSHIP) through Aetna Health,_ physical health specialties and psychiatric services, and multiple resources for nutrition, psychiatry, after-hours emergency care, and immunizations through the student patient portal. 404-727-7551

	Pathways to Success
English Language Support Program	Laney’s ELSP works with international students to strengthen academic writing, speaking, and presentation skills through individualized consultations, workshops, and resources.
Professional & Academic Communication Support	Coming spring 2026, this Laney program will provide support to and writing resources to LGS students including: individual consultations for academic writing, fellowships, and teaching materials, dissertation boot camps and weekly writing groups.
Professional Development and Career Planning	Laney’s PDCP provides resume and cover letter support, interview preparation, career workshops, alumni connections, and experiential opportunities to equip graduate students for success across academic, industry, nonprofit, and public-sector pathways.
	Community & Belonging
The HUB @ EMORY	This Emory centralized digital platform was designed to connect students with campus life. Check in to learn more about Flourishing at Laney experiences, connect with peers, and access key resources.
Office of Spiritual & Religious Life	Offering a diverse array of spiritual traditions on campus and in the vibrant interfaith city of Atlanta. Opportunities to engage include: spiritual life programs and services, sacred spaces on campus, and vibrant interfaith communities. 404-727-6226
This document is designed to help students, faculty, and staff identify supportive resources to assist students with their individual needs. Use the hyperlinks to navigate to specific resources and offices to learn more. Questions: Contact LGS Student Affairs - lgs.studentaffairs@emory.edu
Updated Feb 2026	